Speaking Procedure

1. Greet the student. Invite him/her to sit down. Have a brief conversation as a warm-up.

Example dialogue

T: Hello. My name's _____. What's your name?

S: (My name's) _____.

T: How old are you?

S: (I'm) _____ (years old).

2. Display the pictures and ask the student to name the food he/she can see. Prompt, if needed, by pointing to one picture and asking "What is it?" or "What are they?"

Then ask him/her questions using Is there any... ? or Are there any... ? and encourage him/her to use the table to answer. If needed, ask questions using How many... are there?

Example dialogue

T: Is there any cheese?

S: Yes, there is some cheese.

T: Are there any pears?

S: Yes, there are three pears.

3. Invite the student to say what food from the pictures is his/her favorite by asking "What's your favorite food from the picture?" or "Do you like sausages?" Encourage him/her to say what other type of food, not pictured, he/she likes.
